

One Town, One Vision!

General Plan and Development Code

"If our democracy is to grow in its capacity to solve its weighty environmental, economic and social problems, it will be because young people are learning to participate effectively in public life. It is because young people are discovering that involvement in public life is not what we leave to a public official to do for us or to us. It is an exciting, rewarding dimension of the "good life" we all want."

-Frances Moore Lappe, Center for Living Democracy-
